

31 OCTOBER 2018

PRESS RELEASE

Purcari Wineries Plc. is pleased to announce that Mr. Neil McGregor, the Chairperson of the Nomination, Remuneration and Governance Committee (independent, non-executive director), has been elected on October 25th as Chairman of the British Romanian Chamber of Commerce (BRCC).

Chisinau, 31 October 2018 – Members of the BRCC were able to meet the new British Ambassador, Andrew Noble, at the informal business mixer held by the Chamber at the Pullman Hotel on Thursday 25 October 2018, when it was announced that Vice-Chairman Neil McGregor (managing partner of McGregor & Partners and a director of Purcari Wineries) will become Chairman in succession to Colin Lovering on 11 November 2018.

25 October marked a new chapter in the activities of the BRCC with the introduction of the new British Ambassador Andrew Noble to its membership base and the announcement of changes in the leadership of the Chamber, as well as the grant of Royal Patronage to the BRCC by the Romanian Royal House.

Neil said: “Romania is a major market for Purcari Group wines and we also have a Romanian subsidiary, Crama Ceptura. I look forward to welcoming Purcari as a new member of the BRCC and to increasing the awareness of our wines to wider audiences. I hope that my tenure as Chairman of the BRCC will see increased sales of our Romanian and Moldovan wines on the UK wine market as I have already received appreciative comments from British contacts who have tried them.”
